The following information is provided in response to specific questions received by Battery Park City Authority (“BPCA”) in connection with the On-Call Construction Management Services RFP.

The responses are provided in bold print immediately following the questions:

1) Does BPCA already have a potential list of upcoming projects that the Awarded Firm will potentially be handling during their term as On-Call CM? If so, can BPCA please provide the proposers with this list?

   BPCA does not currently have a list of future projects that will be managed by the on-call construction managers.

2) In regards to insurance requirements for Comprehensive Marine Liability Insurance: Does the proposer have to have the marine liability insurance prior to award or can the firm wait until they are awarded the contract?

   The selected Proposers will not be required to provide evidence of comprehensive marine liability insurance until such time as an assigned project is determined to require such coverage. At that time, a selected Proposer would be required to obtain the necessary insurance (having included the cost of the insurance in its proposal for the assigned project).

3) Prime is an MBE-certified firm. Can Prime satisfy MBE goal or need to bring an MBE sub?

   If a selected Proposer is an MBE and/or WBE, such firm may count self-performed work towards the fulfillment of the M/WBE goals for the Contract. However, an M/WBE Proposer must still complete and submit a utilization plan that accounts for the balance of the M/WBE or SDVOB goals not met through self-performed work.

4) Can one firm be a Prime and a Sub at the same time?

   A Construction Management firm can hold a prime consulting contract with BPCA and also serve as a sub-consultant for a different BPCA contract; however, it may not be a prime consultant and a sub-consultant on the same contract.
